What is the next step?

Rainforest Fund is a non-profit foundation, which relies on public and private donations in order to support the global projects we fund each year. For 28 years, Rainforest Fund has supported Indigenous Peoples throughout the world's rainforests in their efforts to protect their lands and fulfill their rights. Projects range from assisting communities in gaining legal titles to their lands to installing rainwater purification systems in Indigenous villages after oil companies poisoned their groundwater. Our vision is to ensure Indigenous Peoples' autonomy and rights to self-determination, and your donation will help them to achieve their goals and can continue this crucial work.
