What is the next step?

Rainforest Fund is eager to collaborate on sustainable initiatives that support the human rights and dignity of Indigenous Peoples throughout the world by partnering with conscious companies looking to donate a portion of their product(s) sales. Rainforest Fund relies on public and private donations in order to support the global projects we fund each year, supporting Indigenous Peoples throughout the world's rainforests in their efforts to protect their lands and fulfill their rights. Projects range from assisting communities in gaining legal titles to their lands to installing rainwater purification systems in their homes after oil companies poisoned their groundwater. Our vision is to ensure Indigenous Peoples' autonomy and rights to self-determination, and your donation will help them to achieve their goals and continue this crucial work.
